New Slashes In School Budget Made By Board

Action Last Night Brings Reductions For Year To About $50,000

SOME COURSES ARE TO BE ELIMINATED

Economy Moves By Board Equivalent To About One Mill In Tax Rate

Unsheathing the economy axe, Wednesday night, the New Castle School Board took some additional cuts at the budget for the coming school year and by the end of the session had brought the total economies effected for the year to just short of $50,000. The economies effected Wednesday night were what appears to be the last that are possible. As the budget stands now it represents only the most necessary expenditures, it is stated.

New Changes
Included in the new economies are, abandoning the teaching of typewriting in the junior high schools, reduction of the school nursing force to two nurses instead of three, abolition of a clerk to the school doctor, reduction of $200 in the school doctor's salary, elimination of the school nurse's salary.

PA NEW OBSERVES

So modern and streamlined are the new buses that daily pass through the city that more than one pedestrian stops to gaze at them.

Almost every available vacant lot in the downtown district has been turned into parking spaces, that are rented out on a monthly basis.

It is surprising to note how many people are on the streets early in the morning long before the stores open for the day. There is an influx of automobiles at this time also as workers make their way down to their jobs.

Quite a long stretch of new sidewalk is being laid on Garfield avenue near the intersection of North Jefferson street.

At various times attractive displays may be seen in the large display case in the main hall of the local public library. The library staff endeavors to keep interesting material in this case for the public to view.

Pa New is informed that Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Barnes, 638 John street, have a young cherry tree in their yard, from which they have picked 214 quarts of solid red mint cherries, taken from the tree without the stems, in this year's fruit crop.

Some motorists have reported that their license tags have begun to rust and become unreadable in some cases. Evidently there has been some flaw in the manufacturing process because this has not occurred in past years in this state.

Pa New observed two boys of the teen age enjoying a ride Wednesday afternoon in a distinct kind of car. It was a sedan of a make of a decade and more ago, whose roof over the back seats had been removed and also the sides down as far as the seats and lower doorways and a back had been equipped on the rear of the front seat converting the jalopy into a new modeled open air traveling car.

Two little kittens were hunting a home on Park avenue last night but with indifferent success. The kittens evidently had been dropped from an automobile, the owner of which may, or may not have known that there is a law against it. Stray kittens usually have harder work finding a home than stray dogs. Nearly everybody likes a dog, but not everybody likes a kitten.

Dr. D. H. Eckels Again Elected

Named By Board As School Medical Inspector For Ensuing Year

OTHER MATTERS BEFORE BOARD

Dr. Donald H. Eckels was again named as medical inspector for the New Castle public schools Wednesday night when the board met in the regular monthly session. The salary was set at $2,500, a decrease of $200 from the salary paid in 1938-39.

The position of cafeteria manager was not filled Wednesday night, the board preferring to wait until a committee can investigate the situation for next year and report. In past years cafeteria managers have been operated in the Senior high school and the George Washington and Benjamin Franklin Junior high schools. Due to the double session planned for the Senior high school the coming school year, it is felt inadvisable to open the cafeteria.

This will leave the two junior high schools, and the board members expressed the thought that the cafeteria manager position might now be made one where the manager or supervisor would operate one cafeteria and supervise the other. Mrs. Rachel P. Taylor has been the manager for a number of years.

Other Matters
Several letters signed by citizens were received asking that night school classes in various subjects be opened this fall. No action was taken on the letters.

The board decided to retire $20,000 worth of school bonds which came due in September and $30,000 which came due in January instead of refinancing them.

A group of East Side citizens asked for the use of the Rose avenue playground for baseball games. The board granted the request, but the use of the grounds will have to be sponsored by responsible people. John B. Bechtel, secretary of the board, was authorized to sign contracts for telephones for the schools for the coming year.

Move To Ban Export Of War Materials To Japan Gains Support In Senate

By EDWARD B. LOCKETT
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, July 13.—The Pittman proposal to ban export of war materials to Japan gained strength in the senate today as administration moves to revive neutrality legislation met rebuff.

Forces that supported the foreign relations committee decision on Tuesday postponing neutrality action until next session, met to reinforce their strategy against any Roosevelt moves to attach neutrality amendments to other pending legislation. Reports that Secretary of State Hull may write the committee, asking a committee bill under agreement the senate will postpone action on it until next session, drew cool response.

Expect Message From President
In the face of these developments the White House and state department were awaiting national reaction to neutrality postponement before making their next move. A message from President Roosevelt on the subject was expected next week, unless Hull's current canvassing of possibilities for reviving the issue at this session bears fruit.

A formal statement by foreign relations committee Chairman Pittman, asking a committee bill under agreement the senate will postpone action on it until next session, drew cool response.

This year the Reynoldsstown school reunion will take place Tuesday, August 15, the day before Old Timers Day, in the old schoolhouse on Pearson street. The reunion will start at 2:30 p. m. There will be no basket picnic dinner in the school this year, for the building is no longer in use and the gas and water have been turned off.

Load Of Tires Lost In Crash
Truck Also Badly Damaged As Fire Starts After Culvert Is Struck

DRIVER SUFFERS BURNS IN MISHAP

Accident Occurs This Morning On Highway Near Wampum
A 10-ton truck, owned by the DeCarbo Express company of this city, which was loaded with approximately $4,000 worth of new automobile tires, was badly damaged when it burst into flames after hitting a concrete culvert, two miles south of Wampum, on Route 18, this morning about 7 o'clock. Alford Kosciuszko, of 33 West Miller street, the driver, suffered burns about the legs, body, head and face when he tried to extinguish the blaze.

According to officials of the DeCarbo Express company, a front wheel flat tire caused the mishap. As the truck burst into flames, Kosciuszko made a desperate effort to extinguish the flames, using a fire extinguisher. The flames increased and Kosciuszko was forced to leap from the truck. Kosciuszko left New Castle about 6:45 o'clock, enroute to Pittsburgh. The truck was loaded with about 400 tires. The damage, estimated at more than $7,000, is covered by insurance.

Private R. C. Richter of the Pennsylvania Motor Police, investigated.

To Shorten Bridge At Old Paper Mill

County Commissioners Will Eliminate A Section At East End

County commissioners have decided to do away with the east span of the paper mill bridge. This span is over the old mill race leading from the paper mill. The land over which it passes belongs to the Lawrence Securities company. The company has agreed to donate the land, provided the county fills up the race and puts in a 36-inch storm sewer. The section which it is proposed to eliminate is about 60 feet long, and is expensive to keep up. It is figured that it will be much cheaper to fill in the old race and put in the storm sewer. Since the retaining walls are being built above the paper mill bridge, there will be no special danger of overflow.

Six Hundred Guardsmen Are Patrolling Harlan, Ky. After Day Of Outbreaks

(International News Service)

HARLAN, Ky., July 13.—An armed peace was effected in Harlan today as 600 National Guardsmen, carrying rifles and reinforced by two tanks, patrolled the town and outlying mine areas following a day of rioting in which a miner was killed and several others, including a National Guard captain, were injured critically.

The guardsman, Capt. John Hanberry, fell with bullets in his shoulder and body when he and the five troopers he was commanding exchanged fire with pickets in position on a mountainside above the Mahan-Ellison Corporation mine at Stanfill, nine miles southwest of Harlan.

Britain To Make Huge Addition To Air Force

LONDON, July 13.—Throwing her full financial resources behind the barrage of golden shells being hurled towards Germany, Great Britain today added 184,000,100 pounds ($920,000,500) to her gigantic war chest.

Estimates for the Ministry of Supply totaling 144,000,000 pounds ($720,000,000) were published along with supplementary estimates for the expanding air force amounting to 40,000,100 pounds ($200,000,500). Already well above a record figure for peace-time, Britain's fighting fund thus mounted to a grand total of 842,554,581 pounds ($4,212,772,906).

Budget Is Surprise
Size of the Ministry of Supply's budget proved a surprise. The ministry was created as an emergency measure only this year, with E. L. Burgin at its head, to purchase supplies and organize and coordinate production of munitions and other essential materials on a virtual war-time basis. Thirty million pounds ($150,000,000) of the fund will be borrowed.

State A. F. Of L. Leaders Says Friday Strike Call Stands Despite Green's Statement

By RAYMOND WILCOVE
International News Service Staff Correspondent
HARRISBURG, July 13.—The Pennsylvania WPA today began firing striking WPA workers as thousands of others, affiliated with the A. F. of L. building trades unions and the Workers Alliance, awaited a statewide strike call set for tomorrow.

At its headquarters in Harrisburg the WPA announced that dismissal notices had been sent to 103 WPA workers who left their jobs Tuesday and have not since returned. All but two of these were in the Pittsburgh district. The other two dismissed were in Philadelphia and Luzerne counties.

More To Be Dismissed
Additional dismissal slips were to be sent out today in conformity with the ruling by National WPA Commissioner F. C. Harrington that all workers who remain away from work for five consecutive days shall be stricken from the roll. Pennsylvania WPA officials have estimated the number on strike as less than 500 out of 150,000 on the WPA work relief rolls. Labor leaders said there were many more.

Meanwhile, at Washington, Pennsylvania officials of the American Federation of Labor said they had no intention of calling off the strike for 4:30 tomorrow. The strike was voted Tuesday by the State Building Trades Council in protest against the new security wage which (Continued On Page Two)

Employment For 49,356 Highway Workers Assured

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, July 13.—Employment for 49,356 highway workers this year was assured today with the announcement by the highways department that it would sponsor 684 projects with WPA aid.

The projects, located in various parts of the state, will be financed in part by the state, which will furnish $4,285,621 at the rate of $1.071,000 a month for four months, and by the federal government, which will supply the greater portion of the remaining funds.

"No time is being lost in getting these projects under way," said Secretary of Highways I. Lamont Hughes.

The $4,285,621 is part of the $8,000,000 set aside by the legislature as the state's contribution to WPA highway projects this year.

President May Seek An End To WPA Walkouts

A. F. OF L. EXECUTIVE CALLED TO CONFER

Building Trades Executive Summoned To White House By Roosevelt

By DAMON RUNYON JR.
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, July 13. The A. F. of L. today made plans to lay the W.P.A. crisis on President Roosevelt's doorstep, even as the president himself took a personal hand in the nationwide dispute precipitated by a wave of strikes by W.P.A. workers.

While thousands of W.P.A. workers were being dismissed for striking, a committee headed by William Green, president of the A. F. of L., met in Green's office and made arrangements to see the president tomorrow.

President Summons Leader
At that time, it was announced, the federation committee will protest to the president over the elimination of the prevailing wage clauses in the new 1939-1940 relief act.

However, the president already was getting a first-hand report on the relief dispute. He summoned Daniel J. Tracy, a building trades executive of the A. F. of L., to the White House and engaged in a long conference with him.

Tracy said he had been called there and had not sought the meeting. Most of the W.P.A. strikers are building trades unionists who refuse to work for less than prevailing wages. They declined to work 130 hours a month at security wages as decreed in the new relief act.

Many To Be Dismissed
W.P.A. Commissioner F. C. Harrington, after a meeting with state administrators and regional directors at Chicago, announced flatly that 650,000 relief workers throughout the nation must be dropped permanently by July 1, 1940.

And many others—the total number undetermined—are being dismissed for five or more days idleness in protest strikes against wage and hour provisions of the new 1939-40 relief act. They protested against longer hours, restricted pay and abolishment of the prevailing wage rate.

Benzine Burns In Rail Mishap

Six Cars Of Pennsylvania Train Are Derailed In Montgomery Co.

HIGH TENSION WIRE FALLS ON BENZINE

(International News Service) CONSHOHOCKEN, Pa., July 13.—Two trainmen were burned seriously and an estimated $60,000 worth of benzine was set afire by a nearby high-tension electric wire when six cars of a Pennsylvania railroad freight train derailed near Blue Bell, Montgomery county, early today.

The injured men are L. M. Umholtz, 64, conductor, and A. C. Rutter, Jr., 39, brakeman, both of Harrisburg.

Fire blazes for hours. Firemen were called to fight the flames as benzine from the six tank cars continued to blaze for hours after the wreck.

Hundreds of spectators who dashed for the scene were endangered shortly after the crash when a wire from the electric power standard fell across a bridge over a ravine in which the cars were derailed.

The damaged cars were part of a 69-car freight bound for Jersey City over the Trenton freight "it off" of the railroad.

Mrs. George Henderson, of New Castle, R. D. 3, brought several Boysen berries to The News office, Wednesday, that were whoppers. It only took about five berries to fill a dessert dish. If you want to know why there are so many well fed people in the seventh ward, go down and take a look at the community gardens on the road to Willow Grove. These are to be found on either side of the highway, and there is a good natured rivalry among the gardeners as to who can grow the biggest vegetables. Most of the garden patches have been given names by their owners, such as "Sweepstakes," "Onion Grotto" and "Grow Fast." One gardener, who seems to be pugnaciously inclined, has named his plot "Joe Louis," and hopes it will knock them all out.

Pa News met a recent high school graduate today who was looking for a job. He said that he had been everywhere, was willing to work at anything but nobody seemed to need his services. There are probably many others like him. Employment of our youth is now one of the great problems confronting the country. Time was when jobs were beckoning to high school graduates, but the machine age and economic conditions have wrought changes. There is still work to be done and the young man with energy and perseverance will find it.

In traveling around over the city one often marvels at the difference in home surroundings. Often there is a vivid contrast in two adjoining properties. Around one home the lawn may be neat and well kept, while a neighbor's lawn shows evidence of carelessness and neglect. It is the difference between tidiness and slovenliness. The humblest cottage may have an inviting outside appearance, while the more pretentious may have no appeal. It all depends on who lives in the house.

One of the mysteries which it is pretty hard to figure out is where all the applicants come from who ask to be naturalized in Lawrence county. Naturalization court has been held for many years and thousands have been given citizenship, but it will be a surprise to many to learn that there will be a class of three hundred for preliminary examination during the week beginning August 7. As there have been very few aliens coming into the county during the last few years, there appears to be only one answer to the mystery, figure it out for yourself.

One of the longest private sewers in this section of the state has been completed by the New Castle Duntley company at the new sanatorium near Butler. The sewer, which is one foot in diameter is 8,800 feet, or about one and two-thirds miles long. It's depth is normally seven feet but in some places it is twenty-four feet. It has 22 manholes and during construction the sewer had to be tested from these manholes by the erection of a test pipe twelve feet high, and of the same diameter as the sewer. This was filled with water to test the joints. The sewer discharges into a private sewage disposal plant.

Little Paul McIntyre, who resides with his grandmother, Mrs. Elizabeth McCormick, of Ray street, wished to join in the fun at Idora Park in Youngstown on Tuesday, so he hopped on his bicycle and "wheeled" his way to that city. Harlan jail. Hubert Green, a miner, received a scalp wound in this battle and a woman, Mrs. Kizzie Williams, was struck in the leg by a bullet.

The trouble was blamed by Gov. A. B. Chandler on William Turnblazer, president of District 19 of the U. M. W. In a statement after he had ordered the 300 troops at Harlan doubled to preserve order, the governor declared:

"I shall request that the Harlan county grand jury indict for inciting a riot, William Turnblazer and George Titler (union secretary). Their methods are typical of those of violence advocated by John L. Lewis (president of the U. M. W. and head of the C. I. O.). This violence in all probability is due to an incendiary speech made Sunday by Turnblazer. Before that the situation in Harlan county was quiet and the picketing of mines was peaceful."

Harlan's jail was crowded today with more than 200 pickets and others arrested on charges of "banding and confederating to incite trouble."

Among those under arrest was Titler and his wife, Major Frederick W. Staples, in command during the rioting, said he had ordered Titler's arrest "because he was the head of the organization that caused the trouble."

Says Husband Held Her While Another Woman Used Knife

Officers Harper and H. E. Richards were called to South Mercer street Wednesday night by the report that a woman had been cut, and arrested Mary Smith, colored, of rear 818 South Jefferson street, John Herbert Payne, and Katy Payne, his wife, of 923 Moravia street.

Mrs. Payne told officers that her husband struck her and then held her while the Smith woman cut her with a penknife on the right shoulder. Mrs. Payne was taken to the New Castle hospital, where her wound was dressed.

This morning, Mrs. Payne made information before Alderman Wallace J. Ewing, charging Mary Smith with felonious assault and battery, and her husband, with assault and battery. They will be given a hearing on Tuesday, July 18.

"THE OUTSTANDING CLEANERS, FURRIERS AND DYERS"

REPORT STRIKING W.P.A. WORKERS IN STATE DISMISSED

requires skilled workers to work 130 hours a month without an increase in pay. Formerly, under the old act, skilled workers worked at the prevailing union wage and for shorter hours.

No concrete estimate of the opposition against the new wage-hour provision in the 1939-40 relief act is expected to be made until next Monday, despite the strike call issued for tomorrow.

No Work On Saturday

WPA officials said that all WPA workers normally leave work at 4:30 p. m. the time set for the strike, and that Saturday is an off day on which little work is done.

Consequently, Monday will provide the first real test of A. F. of L. and Workers Alliance strength on the WPA. In Philadelphia, the central CIO body has also issued a strike call for tomorrow.

The decision of Pennsylvania A. F. of L. officials to continue with their strike plans came in the face of a statement by National A. F. of L. President William Green, that the A. F. of L. was not responsible for the wave of strikes which have already taken one life, that of a Minnesota policeman. Green said the remedy lay with congress rather than through strikes.

Will Halt Evasion

Although, in Washington, WPA spokesmen said strikers would not be barred permanently from the rolls, Pennsylvania WPA officials have indicated that striking WPA workmen may have to take their chances on re-employment along with 300,000 other Pennsylvanians on relief.

WPA officials indicated that striking workers who attempt to evade the five-day provision against absence by returning to work before the time is up and then striking again will be dismissed for inefficiency.

The strike was expected to exhibit its greatest strength in Pittsburgh and Philadelphia. In the latter city, the Philadelphia Central Labor Union voted to aid the strike by seeking congressional action. John H. Neeson, chief of bureau of engineering and surveys in charge of Philadelphia WPA projects, said an almost 100 per cent tieup could be expected if skilled workers walked out. Forty of the 42 projects would be affected, he said, including 22,000 persons.

man declaring he wants his arms export ban on Japan to stand or fall on its merits, and that he will oppose using it as a medium to get the broad neutrality issue to the senate floor, gave this legislation a lease on life.

"I feel it my duty," said Pittman, "in event my (Japanese) embargo resolution is reported to the senate, to move to table any so-called neutrality legislation that may be offered as a rider or in other words as an amendment."

Both Democrats and Republicans admitted the Pittman proposal "had merit," and it was evident that it commanded strength in the 23-man foreign relations committee, though changes must be made before it will receive a majority vote. Similar legislation was before the house and carried considerable support. Hearings on it before the house foreign affairs committee will begin July 18.

AFTER TWO YEARS OF WAR IN CHINA

Just two years ago Japanese troops on the outskirts of Peiping clashed with Chinese soldiers in what was at the time considered as just one more of those interminable border incidents that so consistently distinguished relations between the two armies. Subsequent events were to prove that its status was not so simple and so harmless. The incident was to be seized upon eagerly by Japan as the meager justification it required for the initiation of a vast enterprise of conquest whose ultimate objective was to be the domination of the Asiatic mainland.

Although the truth with respect to the situation in China is seriously obscured by the restrictions of censorship and the smoke-screen of propaganda, there are certain realities that hardly can be kept from public knowledge. Japan had expected to bring China to its knees in six months, but today, after two years of fighting, complete victory still seems to be far in the future. There are other results that are incontrovertible.

The war in China, like that in Spain, has brought the world to new depths of barbarism. There is no longer the traditional distinction between combatants and noncombatants in warfare. Men in uniform, women and children, hospital, orphanages, armories and arsenals are all legitimate prey to the flier with a load of bombs to dispose of before his return to his base. And the horrors of siege—death, destruction and starvation—have become familiar to all. China has brought to the world war at its worst.

It is estimated that in the two years of war in China, between 4,000,000 and 5,000,000 have lost their lives. Japan is said to be in at least nominal possession of about 600,000 miles of territory, including a number of large cities. The drain upon economic resources and the limited material supplies at home has, of course, been enormous and has caused extreme sacrifices by the Japanese people. And the end, in spite of the millions dead, the wholesale misery produced and the extreme impoverishment to which the masses have been reduced, is not yet. And the end when it comes may be something far different from fulfillment of the bright dream of conquest that animates the minds of the Japanese war lords.

A TRAGEDY IN OREGON

In Portland, Ore., an ambulance bearing a patient who had been struck on the head with a beer bottle during a street brawl, careened through traffic with siren blaring at 50 miles an hour.

The ambulance failed to slacken its speed as it tore past a red traffic light at an intersection. There it crashed head-on into an automobile driven by a popular Portland girl. Her auto was hurled 153 feet from the spot of collision. She was killed.

The beer bottle victim, it later was revealed, was only slightly injured.

Loud protests forced police action that resulted in a manslaughter charge against the ambulance driver. But neither police action nor anything else will restore life to the young woman whose life was taken so wantonly.

Every once in a while there occurs an accident which shocks the public into realization that the private motorist or individual pedestrian is not the only cause of death on the highway. Oregon now has pending legislation aiming for a radical reduction in the rate of speed with which emergency motor vehicles proceed to the scene of an accident, fire or other emergency call.

Our toll of death in traffic is heavy enough without addition from such sources and the Oregon incident, or tragedy, should be sufficient cause to cause thought from public officials in other states.

SAME OLD PROPAGANDA

Propaganda now in the United States, seeking to drag us into the international maelstrom, is not so far different from that employed after the beginning of the European war back in 1914. Then we were told that we must fight to make the world safe for democracy. So heavy did the barrage of words become that we did not stop to think there were autocrats on both sides of the picture.

Today we are being sold on the prospect of a coming war between the democracies and the dictatorships. We are being hammered with the idea that it is our duty now—not to save the world for democracy but to save democracy for the world. Now as then, if we are not careful, we may overlook the fact that again there are autocrats on both sides of the picture. It is true that Hitler and Mussolini are the two most effective dictators in the world and that Americans have no sympathy with their ideology and want none of it here. On the other hand, Russia is being slowly aligned with England and France, and there is no more complete, no crueler autocrat than Stalin who guides the destinies of the "Bear That Walks Like a Man." Poland has been a dictator-led nation for a decade and Turkey—on the other side this time—certainly falls far short of being a democracy.

If and when war comes in Europe, it will not be a fight of one ideal against another, but a scramble for land, for wealth and for trade, a fight of the have-nots to get something away from those who have.

Stalin, Hitler, Mussolini, these three autocrats are the direct result of the war fought to make the world safe for democracy. If another such war is fought the final result will be not more democrats but more dictators. Make no mistake about that. If we mix in European affairs again let us understand exactly what we are doing. For the average American loathes war and hopes it will be kept far from our shores.

Of course war isn't necessary. Just rattle the sabre till nerves break and you can win without fighting.

Stinky penny-pincher: Words used to express our envy of the fellow who still has money when ours is all gone.

Yes, a Christian land should tax itself to care for the unfit. But it is necessary for the unfit to produce another generation to be cared for?

What enrages old timers is the memory of their own early struggles and the hardship they endured because they were too dumb to make the government help.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

TRAINING TO RELIEVE SUFFERING

Hundreds and hundreds of children from six to 12—many more boys than girls—must live in ignominy without hope because they happen to wet the bed while asleep. Their parents, some of them, will shame and ridicule and even beat them.

Of an 11-year-old neighbor boy a mother writes: "They have banished him to the attic to sleep all alone. He is always being scolded and humiliated."

Many of these children would gladly give up a good arm; some would prefer a life of blindness, no doubt, to the torturous life they have to live. And all this suffering is entirely unnecessary.

Of course, it is wise to have a well-trained doctor check on the bed-wetter. In most instances, however, no physical cause is found. Nearly all bed-wetting is a matter of habit which has been prolonged by emotional conflicts and personality fears. And these very fears and conflicts tend to make the habit linger.

In many cases the problem never would arise if the parents had managed themselves better and had sympathetically understood the child.

To help such a child the parents need to be converted to a sensible point of view. They need to realize that they have themselves done most to prolong the problem; that in a sense they have wet the bed for the child, and that if any one needs to be shamed and ridiculed and punished, they are the ones.

Confess Sins
Now let me beg the parents of the bed-wetting child to sit down and confess their sins against him, promising him that they will be his friends and not his enemies henceforth. Then they will agree never to show the slightest annoyance when the child has an accident. They will provide him with a rubber sheet and assure him he need have no worry should he be awakened wet.

He will be given an alarm clock. His Dad or Mother will be on hand the first few times when this rings to make sure the boy awakens. Thereafter the lad will set it often enough each night to assure his being dry next morning. Once he succeeds for several nights, he will gradually lengthen the intervals. And what a world of difference to that boy.

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

OOMPH!

No sooner did their royal train deposit King George and Queen Elizabeth on Canadian soil after their brief visit to the United States, than New York stylists arched their eyebrows and gasped: "Did you see what dresses the queen wore? Substantial, yes—but no oomph, not a bit!"

The question of good manners aside, a vast section of America's male population will rise as one man to question the right of stylists to make any wisecracks about the queen's apparel—not this year, at any rate.

Look what these stylists have done to the headgear of American women the last few seasons! Those beauteous ensembles of straw, velvet, feathers and flowers, all skewered together with reckless abandon and set atop miliary heads, as the designers would say, leave small, if any, room for stylists to carp about lack of "oomph."

It will probably be all right with American men if the queen delivers a high-spirited "Pooh" right back at that "Oomph!"

STREET SCENE

I stand upon the corner
And I watch the people go,
And some are brave and smiling
And some are sad, I know.
The young have hope before them,
The old are bent with woe.

The shops have pretty windows
Through which the mothers stare
At lovely frocks and dresses
(They wish their girls could wear.)
(This is the curse of money:
So few have much to spare.)

The men are at their business.
Some toil with pick and spade,
Some work in marble buildings,
The skillful have a trade,
But out of human labor
All happiness is made.

Thus pass life's busy corner
Go sunny smile and sigh;
Some selling gaudy trinkets,
Some hastening to buy.
The young with hope before them,
The old about to die.

Senator Guffey Proves Headache
Judgement Bad For New Dealers
Third Term Speech Embarrasses

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Columnist

WASHINGTON, July 13.—Senator Joseph P. Guffey, of Pennsylvania, is a good bit of a headache to some of his fellow New Dealers. They don't admit it out loud, but they're more or less audible through keyholes on Capitol Hill. Executive folk and party managers whisper about it, too.

Not that the senator isn't a rip-roaring New Dealer himself. Other New Dealers are unanimous that his heart's 100 per cent all right. It's his judgment that they find fault with. He says things that they consider indiscreet. They're afraid that anti-New Dealers will quote him to the New Deal's disadvantage. If so they can't very well repudiate his utterances, because he's so conspicuously on their side.

What's set them especially jittery of late was the speech the Pennsylvania made the other day in favor of a Roosevelt third term. In itself his third-term declaration was o. k. That was in line with a lot of New Deal sentiment. It was the senator's threat of the dire consequences he predicts if the present White House tenant doesn't get four years more that upsets New Dealerism.

In the event of a Roosevelt renomination next year "F. D.'s" supporters are quite aware that his opponents will set up a dictatorship cry. Their policy naturally will be to push-pinch this suggestion. Senator Guffey, however, warns that we'll have a third term—or else, in effect, a revolution. "There'll be," he says, "an upheaval which will sweep away all politicians and all big business."

Quite a few New Dealers don't like this hint, coming from one of themselves. They interpret it as implying that we have our choice between a third term and totalitarianism—and they suspect that the public will regard the two as amounting to about the same thing.

"O. K." As To Senator Glass
They wouldn't have cared if Senator Glass, for instance, had said that a third term would be equivalent to totalitarianism. They'd have answered, "Phooey!"

But they can't answer "Phooey" when one of their own crowd forecasts a third term or revolution. In short, the third termers and New Dealers ardently wish that Senator Guffey had kept his trap shut or use it more judiciously, anyway.

Guffey, I may say, is regarded in New Deal circles as a friend, but not as an asset—they almost would rather have him in the opposition camp. Well intentioned but politically "buggy."

Paul V. McNutt, of Indiana, just back from our Philippine commission, as a presidential possibility, is making an unexpectedly good impression. He isn't a PROBABILITY but he's better than might have been expected.

McNutt labors under the handicap of being an exceptionally handsome man. That's no good political advertisement.

He was here a year or two ago and was promoted socially—at cocktail parties and that kind of thing. It made him somewhat ridiculous. His beauty and his cocktails! He's got that record to live down.

Nevertheless it now appears that he was a highly good Philippine commissioner.

He seems to know more about the Orient than any other American.

The Filipinos evidently love him—and the Chinese. The Japanese?—no, of course not. He's too familiar with their name. But he's a far Eastern expert. Some folk think that our problems is Pacific rather than Atlantic. McNutt is a dandy Pacific-ar.

"Mac" is a third term advocate. He wants to be nominated, but only secondarily to "F. D."

He's got his points. Maybe this country's understanding of Asia is more important than its understanding of Europe.

The Great Game Of Politics

By FRANK R. KENT
Copyright, 1939,
by The Baltimore Sun

Linked Together

SOME time ago it was reported by persons usually well informed on such matters that the personal relationship between the President and Mr. John L. Lewis of the C. I. O. had reached a stage of distinct unfriendliness, not to say hearty dislike. Mr. Lewis, who is of a truculent disposition, is said to resent the patronizing way in which Mr. Roosevelt talks to him, and Mr. Roosevelt has a strong distaste for the violent outbursts of Mr. Lewis on various subjects.

THE further point is made that the President thinks Mr. Lewis deliberately sabotaged his efforts to bring about peace between the labor factions, while Mr. Lewis considers that the President openly instead of covertly have espoused his cause in the recent coal strike, though without Mr. Roosevelt's support he could not have won. Fundamentally, the political philosophies of the two men are very different. Mr. Lewis is, naturally, for the spending policy because it plays the labor game, and he is for the Administration methods of distributing relief because they lighten the union burden in sustaining strikes. But the more extreme economic theories of the New Deal he has never subscribed.

NOR does he feel the least reverence for the intellectual attainments of the so-called "inner circle." In brief, Mr. Lewis is a labor leader interpreted by the men upon whom Mr. Roosevelt so strongly leans. At least, that is the view of those closest to Mr. Lewis—and certainly there is no secret about the feeling between the more conspicuous of the White House group and some of Mr. Lewis' personal aides. The latter proclaim themselves "Liberals" in their publicity and public statements. They apply the word to themselves in order to call the employing class reactionaries. But there are Liberals and Liberals in the Administration and the White House advisers do not disguise their belief that Mr. Lewis is not their kind. As for Mr. Lewis, he certainly concedes it—even asserts it.

ALL this, however, does not alter the fact that the interests of the Administration and the interests of the C. I. O. are so linked that they are compelled to work together. The record of Congress at the present session is the best proof of this. On practically every issue the forces of Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Lewis fight together. For example, in the big battle over the relief appropriation, the C. I. O. propaganda machine, directed by Mr. Lewis, assisted in a support of the President, denouncing members of Congress who voted to cut the appropriation below the White House figure.

ON the other hand, it is the President who has made possible for Mr. Lewis to block the efforts of the A. F. of L. and the employers to amend the Wagner Labor Act—and this in spite of the fact that the President has privately conceded that certain amendments ought to be made. But not so Mr. Lewis. He does not want the act touched. And, supported by the White House, the chances seem very good the session will end without it being touched.

White House support for Mr. Lewis in his fight to stall off amendments has not been given openly, but it has been none the less effective. At the start of the session the state of public sentiment, the weight of the press and the weight of the A. F. of L. plus the employment of Mr. Lewis to insure changes that would remove the cause for feeling that the National Labor Relations Board is dominated by the C. I. O. and that, regardless of the merits of their case, employers are unable to get justice under it.

HAD it been possible to have a vote any time in the first four months of this session, the amendments urged by Senators Burke and Walsh would easily have been adopted. But the C. I. O.-Administration forces have prevented a vote. First, action was delayed by the excuse that it was not worth while to take the amendments up in committee until the A. F. of L.-C. I. O. peace negotiations were concluded. By that time these were abandoned, public interest in the amendments had evaporated and the session had reached a stage where it is now forecast no action before the adjournment is at all likely. This is exactly as Mr. Lewis planned it, but it could not have worked out that way but for Roosevelt support of his delay strategy. When these things are considered, it seems unimportant whether the personal relations of Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Lewis are unfriendly or not. They can dislike each other personally as intensely as they please. It is their political not their personal relations that count.

Palmer A Candidate For Treasurer Post

East Side Business Man Announces Candidacy On Republican Ticket

DAVID A. PALMER

David A. Palmer, a well known former business man of the East Side, today announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for county treasurer. Mr. Palmer was born and reared in New Castle educated in the local schools and later graduated from Duff's Mercantile College of Pittsburgh.

For a time he taught school in Shenango township, later worked in the tin mill and then went into the store operated by his father. In 1905 he took over the proprietorship of the store and conducted it successfully until 1928 when he sold out. He continued his affiliation in the store until 1935. In 1935 he was a candidate for the nomination for county treasurer and in spite of a brief campaign received a vote which justifies his seeking the nomination again.

In his statement of announcement, Mr. Palmer says: "I believe the office of County Treasurer demands a man of business experience, one whose personal integrity is above suspicion. "A business man for thirty-five years, I had to handle my own accounts properly or suffer losses. For the past twenty years I have acted as treasurer of several organizations, and every penny entrusted to me has been accounted for.

"I make only one pledge, and that one is, if nominated and elected to handle the taxpayer's money in an efficient manner, to account for every dollar of it according to law, to keep the expense of the office at a level consistent with good business practice, and to use the same caution in handling the funds of the office as though they were my own.

"Lawrence County is my home, and has been since the day of my birth. I believe the people of this county demand ability in the office of County Treasurer at the next election, and I feel that my experience in business life qualifies me to do the job.

"I will appreciate your vote at the Primary Election."

DAVID A. PALMER.

Railroaders And Families
Enjoy Outing At Cascade Park

ARE ANNOUNCED

Again demonstrating a knack for organization and planning, the employees of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad held their annual picnic in Cascade Park Wednesday, July 12, and from the appearances every employee who could be present was there with his family and a host of friends.

First on the sports program was a baseball game between New Castle and Youngstown, which ended 6 to 5 in favor of the New Castle boys. For Youngstown the batters were Morganti, Semple and Murphy. For New Castle, Miron, F. Augustine and Yeague, with Burdo and Russett acting as umpires.

The program of races was then run off, with S. H. Rhoads and H. Ross as judges; A. W. Snyder as chairman of the events, and C. E. Gee as starter. The events and winners follow:

Balloon race, children—Caroline Ross, Pauline Davies.
25-yard dash, children 8-9-10—Bill Hanna.

Three-legged race, girls—Frances Cwynar.
50-yard dash, children 11-12-13—Bob Doyle.

Sack race, boys—Clyde Fleeger, Jr.
50-yard dash, boys—Earl Hammond, Jr.

75-yard dash for men—Earl Hammond.
Baseball throwing contest (women)—Trene Dominick.
Bear race, men and boys—Alfred Snyder, Jr.

Egg-throwing contest—Bill Boyd.
Tug-of-War, Boilermakers vs. Machinists—Machinists.

During the afternoon the youngsters enjoyed the rides, ate ice cream and drank lemonade and did the things youngsters have always done at picnics—run themselves into near exhaustion, eat too much and wind up tired but happy.

Picnic Dinner
At six o'clock a picnic dinner was held in the grove and prizes awarded to a number of fortunate individuals. A $25 prize went to Walter Lavender, $15 to Mildred Shearer, $10 to A. G. Skundor, brush and comb set to G. W. Richards, golf balls to Harry Ezzo, tray to Carol Boyd and a pipe stand to Virginia Ross.

General Chairman I. L. Harper then took charge of the gathering and made a short address of welcome. He congratulated the men and women of the B. & O. for the co-operative spirit which made the picnic such a success.

Following his welcoming address, Mr. Harper introduced the following men, who spoke briefly: Dr. G. P. Grimsley, director CTP group; M. W. Jones, editor B. & O. Magazine; J. W. Chamberlain Is Ready For Vote

Will Stake Political Future In General Election In Fall

IS EXPECTED TO GET MAJORITY

By CHARLES A. SMITH
International News Service Staff Correspondent

LONDON. — Hitler permitting Premier Neville Chamberlain has decided to stake his political future in a general parliamentary election next October, it was strongly reported in political circles today.

Present indications are that Premier Chamberlain's National Government will be returned to power with an overwhelming majority, but perhaps not as large as it has now.

The life of the present ministry is due to end next spring. The Conservative Central Office, political headquarters of the Chamberlain party, believes the general election for a new parliament should be deferred until the last moment. But Chamberlain is pictured as being anxious to settle matters as early as possible.

A new electoral register will come into being October 15. According to forecasts in political circles, the election campaign will begin about the same time, and voting will take place at the end of October.

Foreign Policy Key
By going to the country at this time, Premier Chamberlain will in effect be seeking an endorsement of his foreign policy. His chief opponents, represented by the Labor Party, will criticize his alleged inability in foreign affairs, particularly his switch from appeasement to strong-arm methods.

But the belief is widespread that the fact Chamberlain has thus far succeeded in keeping the British people out of war will pay him handsome dividends in a general election.

The reports of a coming general election have coincided with rumors that Chamberlain may step down from the premiership after the election and hand over his job to a younger man. The rumors are strongly discredited in Government circles.

What is more probable is that Chamberlain will extensively reshuffle his Government, bringing in new and younger blood here and there, particularly in the defense posts.

At the moment, the National Government has a House of Commons strength of 419 seats, against 196 held by the opposition parties. Labor, the chief opposition party, confidently anticipates to increase its representation to 200 seats or more, but not even the most fervid Laborite expects Labor to be returned with a majority.

Railroad Detective Warns Trespassers

P. & L. E. Officer Promises Arrests For Gardner Yards Violators

Detective J. P. Cook of the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie railroad police force, warned today that trespassers at the Gardner avenue yards of the railroad, west of Moravia street, will be arrested on sight.

"Young men and boys must break up their dangerous practice," Cook said. "They cross the railroad property to swim in the Shenango river and use the railroad bridge at that point for a diving platform."

By approaching the river from the west side, Cook said, trespassing can be avoided. Posted warnings today announce that fact.

"We want to prevent possible death or injury to swimmers," the railroad detective stressed.

Philadelphia Prisons Hold Record Number

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, July 13.—Eastern penitentiary's 129-year population record reached its top with 3330 prisoners incarcerated in the state's two prisons at and near Philadelphia, Secretary of Welfare E. Arthur Sweeney revealed.

Through transfer of good behavior men to county prisons, to the state prison farm at Rockview, and of insane criminals to the Fairview state hospital, the inmate population at the Philadelphia institution and its branch at Graterford were reduced to 3240 men. Their normal capacity is 2944.

In explanation of the record population, Secretary Sweeney said, "Unemployment combined with marauding gangs of youngsters are the principal reasons for the tremendous number of prisoners."

"While criminals will always be with us, we who are charged with the responsibility of safety keeping lawbreakers, and also with making efforts to rehabilitate the rehabilitative deprecate the fact that many of the prisoners admitted since the beginning of this year are youths.

"When the gang's leader is caught, several others follow him behind the bars—sometimes as many as seven boys are sentenced for being implicated in the same crime. Most of the boys are sentenced for burglary and holdups.

"Much youthful delinquency can be eliminated through religious worship, better home environment, and more attention by parents to their children's friends and their whereabouts."

Mrs. Liebondorfer 98 Years Old Today

Croton Avenue Resident Has Passed Most Of Years In New Castle

Mrs. Thusenelda Liebondorfer, of 923 Croton avenue, is today quietly observing her 98th birthday anniversary.

It was on the 13th of July, 1841, that an infant daughter was born in Jefferson county to a pioneer couple, Israel and Mary Swineford, and was named Thusenelda. The family moved to Lawrence county and settled in the Wurttemberg district when Thusenelda was still a girl. On August 30, 1859, (80 years ago,) she was married to David Liebondorfer, who is now deceased. She is the last surviving member of a family of thirteen; her closest relatives are nieces and nephews.

New Castle's Croton district has been her home since her marriage. She is one of the oldest members of the W. C. T. U. and of the Dewey Avenue Free Methodist church, and has long been a diligent and interested temperance and church worker.

She is able to get around some, coming down stairs occasionally. She has a good memory for the events of long ago and her friends like to skip back over the years with her. Among her nieces are Mrs. Matie Hutchinson of Jefferson county, Mrs. Mary Cox of New Castle, Mrs. Estella Gere of New Castle, D. D. 3, and nephews, John Waggoner of New Castle, Frank, George, Edward, Orrie and Cash Swineford of Brookville.

Interest in the forthcoming campaign is beginning to be shown at the county registration office. Registration Clerk, Thomas Edmunds, reports that there were 125 registrations on Tuesday. Some of them were new, others were changes of location or party affiliation.

At least one wedding which seemed to be in the offing, will not take place. The groom to be, a colored man, called at the prothonotary's office yesterday and informed Prothonotary John Edgar that the marriage license which had been issued would not be used, and wanted to know what to do about it. Edgar told him that all he had to do was to let the license die a natural death by not using it.

County Treasurer V. I. Mandich, expects a rush to pay taxes and save the discount, is on at his office. July is the last month during which the discount can be saved.

During August taxes must be paid at face, and September 1, the books go to the delinquent collector.

In the case of the commonwealth against Bessie and Floyd Thompson in which they were found not guilty on a charge of breaking and entering, and in which the jury placed the costs on the prosecutor, Henry McNany, Judge Thomas W. Dickey today sentenced McNany to pay the costs.

In an opinion handed hand by Judge Thomas W. Dickey in the case of Harold M. Leach, agent for W. R. Clifton, against Eugene and Elizabeth Callahan, an order staying a writ is revoked and the sheriff is directed to proceed. The case is one growing out of a rent claim of $159.50. Callahan's claimed that they had made certain repairs to the premises occupied and did not owe any rent.

The Public Utility Commission has scheduled a hearing here on July 26 and 27, at the court house. There are a number of local cases to be heard. Hearings will open at 10 o'clock each forenoon.

William Franklin Long has filed an application at the prothonotary's office for a divorce from his wife, Helen Virginia Long, on the grounds of indignities. The couple was married in March, 1937 at Wheeling, W. Va. Libellant lives on R. D. 7, Ellwood City and respondent at Rochester, Beaver County, Pa.

Prothonotary and Clerk of Courts John A. Edgar, has received word from the naturalization department at Pittsburgh that three examiners will be sent here during the week of August 7 to examine applicants for first papers. There is already a class of 300 asking to be examined. Regulations regarding relief are believed to be responsible for the large class. At the last naturalization court held here papers were granted to 250 applicants.

Parking Meter Receipts Grow

Over Three-Quarters Of A Million Nickels Have Been Taken In By Machines

RECEIPTS GROW DURING SUMMER

With the advent of summer and an increase in motor traffic, receipts from the city parking meters have grown considerably, the figures of City Controller Sid Lockley reveal. Up until the first of July, this year, the sum of $9,523 has been taken in. The three months of January, February and March bring in the least amount during the entire year, local citizens being loath to drive their cars downtown during this period, although the receipts hold up pretty well during the balance of the year. Total receipts to date amount to $38,982.45, and of this amount $24,284.38 was paid out for the purchase of the machines, which have been owned outright by the city since January of this year, so that every nickel now taken in is clear money, except for a small amount which is necessary from time to time to keep the machines in repair.

The machines will bring into the coffers of the city approximately $20,000 per year from now on, which will help the city finances considerably. During 1937, the machines brought in $10,103.05, being only in use a part of the year. In 1938 the receipts amounted to $20,356.40. With the best part of the year ahead, this sum should be exceeded this year. A total of 779,649 nickels had been placed in the machines by motorists up to the first of July this year. Approximately a half bushel of nickels are taken from them every two weeks, so that if the entire amount was placed in one pile, it would make a big one.

Dr. Dafoe's Column On The Quintuplets And The Care Of Your Children

Copyright 1938, King Features Syndicate, Inc.

EACH NEW-BORN CHILD POSSESSES DISTINCTIVE WILL TO LIVE

It is a wonderful thing how a little work over an apparently dead new-born child will bring it back to life. If a baby isn't breathing at all, it doesn't live longer than half an hour, but often they breathe so slightly that you don't notice it. If you keep on working over them, in an hour or so they begin to breathe more or less naturally. I never give up hope for hours. You see the trouble about getting started is that it takes just twice as much force to open the lungs up with that first breath as it does to keep them distended thereafter.

This will to live is very strong in a baby, stronger in some than in others. Once I recall being summoned to attend a young unmarried girl whose child was born unattended. Whoever was with her had hidden the baby in a drawer and then called me, for the woman wasn't in very good shape. I came, looked after the mother and then asked about the baby. When I looked in the drawer I saw that it was a premature child, between five and six months. It was breathing away in spite of the fact that no care had been taken. The child lived for about 24 hours before it died.

The amount of air that a baby breathes at first is surprisingly small when you consider how important it is for him to get air. Even after 20 minutes out in the world, the amount in one breath is only about half a fluid ounce, or one thirty-second of a pint. At six hours the amount of breath will be about twice this much, but even at the end of a week's breathing he is only taking in about 2-1/3 as much air as he did when he was 20 minutes old.

Babies who are weak or premature don't breathe even this much. Their breathing goes on in the central portion of the lung, with the finer tubes in the outer branches remaining closed as though the child were still inside the mother. However, if the child doesn't grow weaker, the area of lung used in breathing will gradually increase.

The problem facing a doctor who has brought into the world a child that doesn't seem to be breathing is the same as when he is called to attend a person who has been asphyxiated or apparently drowned. He knows he must get the breathing apparatus going or death will come very quickly.

With adults—drowned or asphyxiated—you can handle them more or less roughly. Artificial respiration is tried. This is what used to be done with babies, too, but today there are better methods that are gradually being accepted by medical practitioners everywhere.

By the best method, a mixture of a gas and air is administered the child, and very often a baby which would have been billed "still born" in the birth certificate is brought to life.

Thus every year we are learning of something new to save life.

BACKACHE, LEG PAINS MAY BE DANGER SIGN

Of Tired Kidneys

If backache and leg pains are making you miserable, don't just complain and do nothing about them. Nature may be warning you that your kidneys need attention.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking excess acids and poisonous waste out of the blood. Most people pass about 3 pints a day or about 3 pounds of waste.

Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning shows there may be something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

If the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, poisonous waste matter stays in the blood. These poisons may start nagging backaches, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait. Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from the blood. Get Doan's Pills.

The Human Side Of The News

(By EDWIN C. HILL)

Copyright 1939 King Features Syndicate, Inc.

Heartening news comes out of Elyria, O. One man, at least, has finally quit talking about doing something for the long-suffering Middle Class, and is really moving into action. And since the man is the prodigious Walter B. Pitkin, the millions of in-between Americans who have long lacked a spokesman may hope shortly to hear loud, impressive shouts.

Lecturing in Elyria the other day, on a short trip from his home base at Columbia university, Author-Farmer-Professor-Pitkin announced that he had begun spade-work for a League of the Middle Class. The league will be "non-political, non-sectarian, non-commercial." It will seek to arouse the Middle Class to action for its own political and economic benefit and "to correct evils" by pointing public opinion in the right direction.

If Author-Farmer-Professor-Pitkin doesn't lose interest, the league is just about sure to do all these things. It may do a lot more, for the organizer is one of the few men in the world who seldom miss the bull's eye. Untiring little Arnold Bennett was a second. World-embracing H. G. Wells is a third. Before them was Leonardo Da Vinci. Alongside any of the four a one-armed paper-hanger with the hives would seem to be just a man taking a rest cure. And especially alongside Pitkin.

He has written books enough to start a library; he has run a farm; he has taught four foreign languages, economics, psychology, aesthetics, philosophy, the logic of mathematics and journalism; he has been a tutor, printer, junkman, peddler, factory hand, cook, cattleboss and a crack high jumper in his college days. Incidentally, he has made a pile of money, a lot of it from his best-seller "Life Begins at Forty."

Past 60 now, he has far too much hair for a man whose brain has traveled in high so long. His smile is quick and easy-going and his go-to clothes are unfashionable miles short of what the successful man usually wears. He wouldn't get a look alongside Grover Whalen. It is only when he begins to talk that he lives up to his advance notices. He can talk on any subject under the sun. He knows more than a college senior, more than a victorious politician.

Once, just to check up, a doubting friend picked 100 words, hit-or-miss, out of a dictionary. Pitkin defined 99. Still hit-and-miss, the friend chose 30 subjects from an encyclopedia. Pitkin knew something about 25, and a lot about 18.

He builds up his store of knowledge and his record of performance by sticking tight to the kind of work schedule all of us would stick to if we had his gumption. Before he writes a book he plans it out in detail. Then the writing bangs along at four thousand words or so a day. (And he never revises.) Before he starts any piece of work he plans that too.

If Dr. Pitkin can instill a fraction of his tremendous energy into the Middle Class, the country ought to begin to feel the power of his league. That will admit no racketeers, he says, however high their station. He wants just the Common People. Perhaps, like Abe Lincoln, he remembers how many of them God made.

Naval Board To Probe Fire On Airplane Carrier

Fire Occurs In U.S. Navy Yard

Carrier Was Undergoing Repairs At Time; Fire Loss Is Small

CAUSE OF BLAZE WILL BE SOUGHT

(International News Service) NORFOLK, Va., July 13.—A naval board of inquiry was named today to determine the cause of the fire aboard the airplane carrier Ranger.

While the fire threatened, for a time, to destroy the giant craft, it was extinguished before it had caused any serious damage. Admiral M. H. Simon, commandant of the Portsmouth navy yard, doubted that sabotage was involved. The Ranger was undergoing repairs at the navy yard.

"I looked for that particularly," the admiral said, "but I don't see how there could have been any sabotage because the link (in a gasoline line) broke when a man was installing a gasket to stop a gasoline leak—under orders."

Moreover, the admiral said, the welder, a spark from whose torch was believed to have started the blaze yesterday by igniting the gasoline flowing from the leak, "was working 40 feet away, also under orders."

The third deck of the Ranger was flooded with about 100 gallons of gasoline before the leak was stopped. The gasoline is used to refuel airplanes on deck.

Damage to the Ranger consisted of seared paint over an area of 50 feet on its starboard side and destruction of a small motor launch, anchored nearby.

Review Refused In Byler Damage Case

Court Hands Down Opinion In Which Costs Are Placed On Petitioners

Judge Thomas W. Dickey handed down an opinion at court in the case of Eli M. and Julia Byler, in which a petition for a review of a damage claim against the county was refused at the cost of the petitioner.

The Bylers own the property at Parktown corners on the New Castle-Youngstown road. When the road was widened recently a corner was cut off the Byler farm in order to lessen the curve. A building and some trees were also taken.

County commissioners were unable to agree with the owners of the property and viewers were appointed. After testimony had been taken the Bylers were awarded $3100 damages.

The Bylers were not satisfied and asked for a rule on the county to show cause why there should not be a review. The county commissioners, through their solicitor, William McElwee, opposed the hearing, claiming the award had been sufficient.

Girls Have Fun At Camp Of Y. W.

In a telephone report to the Y. W. C. A. Wednesday afternoon the Camp East Brook counselors reported everything hunky dory in the second camp period. The campers are getting acquainted and are a great deal more friendly than the nations after which their bunk rooms are named. Last evening they were to have a musical program in charge of Marian Thompson, assisted by Barbara Edelstein and Doris Palazzo. Saturday night an international campfire is planned. The girls are at present making book covers for mimeographed camp songs; the handicraft group is showing talent in the decorations for the covers.

This postscript is for mothers of campers who occupied the East Brook center during the first period. There is at the Y. W. C. A. on Washington street a large batch of towels, washcloths, hats, combs, wearing apparel, etc., left at the camp in the excitement of departure last week. Mothers are urged to claim these articles.

Town Of Coral Will Be Sold To Highest Bidder

Band Of 700 Citizens Trying Hard To Prevent Auction Sale Of Once Thriving Community

(International News Service) HOMER CITY, Pa., July 13.—For Sale: One village, complete.

That's the way things stood today in the little community of Coral, Pa., a few miles south of here. The entire village is scheduled to be placed on sale Friday. Once a happy, prosperous community, Coral, located in Indiana county, felt the blight of the depression on Western Pennsylvania's mining industry, and things went from bad to worse at a consistent rate.

After an eight months' fight, the Coral Coal and Coke Company gave up and closed down its mines, and now the entire village will be sold. F. S. Morgan, New Kensington realtor handling the sale, expressed belief, however, that about 40 per cent of the residents will be able to buy the homes they now rent.

In addition to the 137 single-family homes on sale will be a general store, two filling station locations, 20 vacant lots and a $30,000 reservoir and water system, including fire hydrants.

Coral will be saved from the ignominy of an auction block, Morgan said, with the town being sold outright at stated prices. At present, the community has a population of 700.

Officers Named By Dairy Association

Ira Beahm, Of Evans City, Re-elected President Of Local District

At the annual meeting of District G. of the Dairy Cooperative Sales Association, which took place in the Slippery Rock High school building, Tuesday evening, Ira Beahm, of Evans City, was re-elected president, and T. J. Cooper, of Slippery Rock, secretary and treasurer. C. E. Reed, of Slippery Rock was named vice president.

The meeting place of the group has been changed from Zellenople to Slippery Rock because of the creation of an additional director district in the Pittsburgh area, and Slippery Rock is nearer the center of the new district.

The matter of sanitary regulations governing the production of milk proposed for adoption by the State Health Board was discussed, but no definite recommendations were decided upon, and further consideration will be given to the matter. Dr. John J. Shaw, secretary of health, has asked that recommendations be submitted by the Dairy groups.

W. W. Bullard, president of the D. C. S. A., in discussing the question of regulating production, stated that it was very difficult to do this, especially for the smaller dairymen. The average size of the herds in the Pittsburgh district is 10 cows, so that the majority of the herds would be under 10 cows in size.

Walton Announces For Commissioner

Hickory Township Man Almost Winner In '35, In Race Again

W. R. WALTON

W. R. Walton, a resident of Hickory township, and for the past six years secretary-treasurer of the Washington Mutual Fire Insurance Company in the Dean Block on South Croton avenue, today formally announces his candidacy for the Republican nomination for county commissioner of Lawrence county.

It was by the small margin of 102 votes that Mr. Walton, widely known throughout the county, lost the Republican nomination for commissioner in 1935—when a field of 21 candidates sought the office.

Virtually a life-long Lawrence county man, Mr. Walton, who was born in Scott township, has served as a teacher in the county schools, worked in the Shenango tin plant, and was an employee of the Standard Steel Car Company here for 20 years, during most of which time and at the present time, operating a farm in Hickory township.

Believing himself well qualified by that experience to serve in the responsible county post, Mr. Walton, in announcing today, stressed:

"That he will, if nominated in September and elected in November, devote all his efforts to the welfare of the people and county as a whole.

That he favors, for one thing, "reasonable inducements on the part of the county to industry, in the hopes of drawing into the county new plants and new payrolls."

That he pledges—and it is his only pledge—to be "conservative in spending the taxpayers' money."

That he can promise and nothing more.

That he will work for full co-operation between county, city and borough officials at all times "for, as Mr. Walton believes, "without co-operation, we as a county cannot progress."

And he will maintain, if elected, the "open door" policy at the court house, and will constantly be receptive to "the suggestions of all sincere citizens desiring to help their chosen leader."

Mr. Walton has resided in Lawrence county his entire life except for a short time, while a student at Grove City College, and afterwards as principal of a school in Allegheny county.

The primary this year is September 12, and the general election November 7.

Fred B. Sankey, President Of Old Timers'
Day Association

Old Timers Day Cascade Park, Wednesday, August 16, 1939.

Prof. W. N. Aiken was born here in 1834, elected superintendent of Lawrence county schools in 1869 and held the position until 1878. He was city superintendent of schools from 1884-1887. His son William Aiken lives in Sharon.

John N. Euwer settled here in 1834 and opened a dry goods store on Washington street. Later the firm name was changed to J. N. Euwer & Sons, for many years was one of the leading stores of New Castle. The Euwer family was a prominent one and they were all active in our community life. Captain John C. Euwer, a son, who carried on the business in later years, was a Civil War veteran in the 134th regiment. He enlisted in 1861 and remained in the army four years. He was the father of Mrs. Lee Raney Gordon, and his grandchildren are Wm. E. Gordon, John C. Gordon, and James Raney Gordon, all married.

In 1834 Robert Reynolds purchased some property on the north side of Pittsburgh street, above where Pearson street intersects it, and established a tannery which he operated until 1871.

In 1834 James D. White rebuilt his father's grist mill, and also erected a saw mill. These stood on the site of Raney & Gordon's flour mill.

On the 10th day of August 1835, the contracts for the construction of the "Cross Cut Canal," from Mahoningtown to Youngstown, O., were let in New Castle and the town was full of contractors and speculators.

In 1836 R. W. Cunningham & Co. kept a store on the northeast corner of the "Diamond," and paid cash for wheat.

Peter Duff had a general store on the south side of the Diamond, and Robert Cochran also had a store on the south side near the site of the "Cochran House?"

The first boat launched on the canal at New Castle was the "Rob Roy," built by Dr. Wm. Shaw, and put into the water the same month which witnessed the completion of the canal. It was sort of flat boat, decked over. A few hours after the "Rob Roy" was launched, a second boat, called the "Alpha" was launched by James D. White. The boats were similar in construction, being each about forty feet long and eight feet wide. There was quite a strife as to who should get his boat first into the water, but the Doctor won by a few hours. Major E. Sankey purchased the "Alpha" and ran it regularly between Beaver and New Castle for a year. The round trip was frequently accomplished "between sun and sun."

The real prosperity dates from the year 1834. There was at this date only a weekly mail between New Castle and Beaver. The route extended from Beaver to the old town of Mercer. Mr. Sankey was the contractor, and during the four years succeeding, the mails became semi-weekly, then tri-weekly, and finally daily, so that since 1838, New Castle has always had at least one daily mail.

Hugh McCready came from Lancaster county and settled here prior to 1830. He married Mary Campbell. His son, Alexander T. McCready married Mary Davis, a member of a pioneer family and they had four children: Mrs. Gilbert Rhodes, Mrs. Wm. J. Erce, Sr., Charles A., and J. Campbell McCready, who was a well known business man and active in civic affairs. Surviving J. Campbell McCready is Mrs. Ellen Pearson McCready, also a daughter Mrs. Meyer Greenbaum of Kittanning and Alexander T. McCready of the Prew Co. (Continued Tomorrow)

Bessemer Noses Out Hot Tops

Nord Hurls Five-Hit Game As Bessemer Takes County Loop Game 7 To 6

D. Nord gave the New Castle Hot Tops just five hits last night at New Galilee field and the Bessemer boys chalked up another victory in the county league, 7 to 6. Bessemer had 11 hits off of Ferrante.

The Hot Tops started a rally that looked like curtains in the last of the seventh, but were stopped with only two runs, not enough to win.

Rambling Around World Of Sports

All-star chip shots—That all-star clash was merely a contest between the New York Yankees, bolstered in three spots by stars from other clubs, and the Cincinnati Reds, strengthened by a few aces from their loop. In winning, the American leaguers were not what they were cracked up to be. As far as the world series preview was concerned, the Reds had a decided edge. Paul Derringer proved that he can pitch in any league with the best of em. Many were inclined to believe that Gabby Hartnett played a favorite when he called his Bill Lee to the knoll. Lee deserved all the credit in the world last season for his wizardry on the mound. This is 1939, and lots of things can happen in a year. That's exactly what has happened to Lee. He is not the same Lee. He hardly deserved a spot on this year's all-star team. It was easily noticeable that Dodger fans were in the stands. When Melvin Ott marched to the plate, the Brooklynites really let him have it with both barrels. Those boos were clearly heard over the radio. After all, it was a great show, and that's what counts.

A touch of this and that—Quite a few localities plan attending next Monday's all-star boxing show in Pittsburgh. Three 10-rounders will make up part of the show to be staged at Forbes field. . . . Around fight circles, they say Joe Louis isn't too interested in meeting Sir Tony Galento again. . . . From London comes a report that Tommy Farr is all washed up. . . . The Louis-Pastor fight in Detroit should be formally announced by Friday. . . . Fans must be getting tired of wrestling, even in Toronto. Attendances have dropped from as high as 10,000 to 2,000 within a year. . . . Betty Carstairs, the British lassie who tried so valiantly to beat Gar Wood, the silver streak of the waterways, is buying and developing islands in the West Indies. . . .

Local sport shorts—The biggest bass in this section of the state has been caught in a Lawrence county stream and not in the Pymatuning or other larger streams. . . . The fish, which measured 22 inches in length, was caught by Bob Stanley, of Bessemer, in the Bessemer lake, according to "Rosey" White, fish warden of Lawrence and Mercer counties. . . . Charley Scaglione, a leading catcher here for many years, has forsaken the sport. . . . In about a month, Lawrence County Class B gridders will start going through their paces in preparation for the 1939 pigskin parade. . . .

YANKEES LEAD IS PARED DOWN

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, July 13.—The major league teams today will swing back into high gear after a three-day layoff because of the all-star game. The American league leaders—the Yankees—and the National league pacemakers—the Cincinnati Reds—will come in for special attention by fans and experts as east goes west in the junior loop and west comes east in the senior division.

Eyes will be trained especially on the Yankees who will open their western stand in Detroit for the five straight losses the Boston Red Sox administered to the New York Yankees before the all-star game intervened have caused discussion as to whether the Yankee dynasty is cracking. A 13½-game edge which the Yankees held over the Red Sox June 30, has been pared down to 6½.

Pirates Top Dodgers

Cincinnati must open a series with the second-place Giants here under the necessity of protecting a 3½-game edge without Ival Goodman, star outfielder, who dislocated his shoulder in the all-star contest. Pittsburgh and the Dodgers jumped the gun at Ebbets field last night when the Pirates won 3 to 0.

The remaining games today are: American league—Boston at Cleveland, Washington at St. Louis, and Philadelphia at Chicago. National league—Chicago at Philadelphia and St. Louis at Boston.

Conn Favored Over Bettina

Pittsburgh Boy Favorite To Win Light Heavyweight Title Tonight In New York

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, July 13.—Billy Conn of Pittsburgh was a 13 to 5 favorite over Mello Bettina of Beacon, N. Y., in their 15-round bout tonight at Madison Square Garden for the light-heavyweight championship. Bettina is recognized as champion by the New York state boxing commission and the National Boxing Association, which some time ago deposited John Henry Lewis as titleholder because he was nearly blind in one eye, will recognize tonight's winner as the head of the division. Conn is expected to weigh 174 and Bettina 175, although both boys are growing fast and expect to be opponents of Heavyweight King Joe Louis in the future. Bettina gained the title in the eyes of the New York commission by knocking out Tiger Jack Fox, Negro challenger of John Henry Lewis, when the state solemnly said John Henry refused to fight, thereby forfeiting his crown. Conn, graceful, 21-year-old Pittsburgher, has beaten Fred Apostoli and Solly Krieger in over-the-weight bouts at the Garden. —BUY IN NEW CASTLE—

Elks Degree Team
Will Participate
In District Meet

To Compete With Lodges Of Northwest Association At Sharon On July 30

ELLWOOD CITY, July 13.—For the honor of representing this district in the state degree team contest during the state convention to be held on August 22 at Bethlehem, Pa., the degree team of the Ellwood Elks Lodge will compete with 19 teams of the Northwest association on Sunday, July 30, at Sharon. Ellwood City has represented the district three times and won the state championship twice losing last year at New Castle.

Arthur Sirriani, chairman of the education committee, reported last evening at the regular meeting that a local high school student has been endorsed as a candidate for free college course offered each year by the Elks state association.

Because of the large attendance the entertainment committee announced that the Saturday evening parties will be continued throughout the summer months.

The next meeting will be held on the first Wednesday of August, so that the firemen may use the ball room for the convention ball on Wednesday evening, August 9, the regular date.

After an informal hour, the sixty members attending were served appetizing refreshments by the lunch committee.

Merchants Of Ellwood City
Have Meeting On Wednesday Night

ELLWOOD CITY, July 13.—The Merchants Division of the Chamber of Commerce held a special meeting in the Chamber rooms last night in order to discuss decorations for the Western Pennsylvania Firemen's convention to be held here the week of August 7.

Merchants went on record in favor of a more elaborate white way decoration instead of individual store decorations. A special committee consisting of F. L. Schweitzer, Nelson Runyan and Ralph Conner were appointed to work on the best method of showing the visiting firemen the progressiveness of the city.

The Division also unanimously agreed to close all stores at 12 o'clock noon for the huge firemen convention parade which will be held on Thursday, August 10.

Plans for the merchants outing to be held at Bentels Grove on next Wednesday afternoon were discussed.

A special committee consisting of Paul Reynolds, Frank Bellissimo, Ralph Herge and President Shearer were delegated to see Council on strengthening the Transient Trade Ordinance.

Lovely Shower For
Mrs. Thomas Lewis

Miss Edith Newton Entertains
Thirty-Two Guests For Recent Bride

ELLWOOD CITY, July 13.—Mrs. Thomas Lewis (Ida Ruzka) was delightfully surprised last evening when Miss Edith Newton pleasantly entertained at a lovely shower last evening at her home in College street.

For diversion bridge was played at eight tables nicely arranged about the home which was beautifully decorated with garden flowers. The attractive score honors went to Miss Anne Bianco and Miss Katherine Krah.

Dainty refreshments were served at a one large and several small tables with a clever canopy of blue and pink streamers surrounding the honor guest's table. Lovely gifts for the bride, whose marriage was just recently revealed, were found under an umbrella, which centered the canopy. An original poem about the gifts and guests was read by Miss Newton and created much merriment.

New Evidence Labels Bridges As Communist

By HAROLD HEROUX
International News Service Staff Correspondent

ANGEL ISLAND, Cal., July 13.—A keen-minded, talkative house painter who once ran for congress as the Communist party's candidate from Los Angeles was called to the stand again today as the government continued its drive to deport Harry Bridges, west coast C. I. O. boss.

The witness, John Lewis Leech, surprised the defense by testifying that Bridges not only was a Communist, but that the Australian-born labor leader had been elected to the Hammer-and-Sickle group's national central committee in 1936.

As Leech unfolded his story, rapidly piling one astounding revelation upon another, Bridges assumed a poker face—a complete change of attitude from the first days of his hearing which had found him cocky and laughing at the government's evidence.

Leech, a 37-year-old father of seven children and one-time resident of Toledo, O., was a former organizer for the Communist party in Los Angeles.

Checks Cost Of City Automobiles

Controller Lockley Compiles Data Showing Cost Of Operating Each Machine

City Controller Sid Lockley is compiling some interesting information, which will be of great benefit to city council in regulating the use of the city's automobiles, which comprise a huge fleet of vehicles. He is checking the cost to the city of each motor vehicle.

The figures, which were gathered for the first three months of the year, and which will be compared with the second three months' cost as soon as the statistics can be compiled, reveal the fact that the average mileage for the entire fleet of trucks and cars was 6.09 miles per gallon of cost, and the average cost, which includes repairs and etc., is $237 per mile.

The best average of any of the vehicles was 13 miles per gallon of gas, while the big aerial ladder truck at Central Station, makes but one mile on a gallon of gasoline. Next comes the street sweeper with 12 miles per gallon. Figuring in other costs, the aerial truck costs the citizens $2.58 for every mile it was driven the first three months of the year.

Every gallon of gasoline and oil used by each car is checked against it, together with the cost of repairs which are put on the machine, thus giving the cost per mile of operation.

NERVOUS, HEADACHY, LOCAL MAN SOON GOT WONDERFUL RELIEF

Hillsville resident tells of great benefits Vendol gave by relieving constipation. Now sleeps fine, feels best in years.

"I wouldn't have believed that any medicine could make such a tremendous difference in a person as Vendol did. If I hadn't taken it myself, and now see the daily benefits from it," declared Mr. Daniel Gardner, well known citizen of Hillsville, Penna., near New Castle, in conversation with the Vendol Man in Eckerd's Cut Rate Drug, where dozens of people call daily to learn all about this great Root, Herb and Alkaline remedy.

"You wouldn't have wanted to meet a more miserable person than I was before I started taking Vendol. I was badly constipated, which caused me to always be worrying over one thing or another. When I got up in the mornings, after nights made restless by ragged nerves, I always seemed to be greeted with a headache. Anything I ate seemed to churn around in my stomach for hours, refusing to digest, and distressing me greatly with gas, indigestion, and acid-risings. Then too, there were aches in my arms and hands so bad that I often had to rub them for relief. "So many people praised Vendol for relieving these troubles that I got some, and despite this condition, Vendol lost no time in bringing the most gratifying relief I ever hoped for.

From a report, received today, of the meeting of the Route 18 Association, held in Medina, O., on July 11, E. C. Wall, president, states that definite progress is now being made on the road proposition.

Of interest to the people in this vicinity is the opening of Route 18 between Mahoningtown and Youngstown. This is the number one project of the association, Wall stated today.

During the meeting, President Wall reported that, "definite promises have been made by state highway departments both of Pennsylvania and Ohio to do something on the Youngstown-New Castle project."

Other projects of the Route 18 Association, are to make additional improvements along the route, to bring the road to first importance to Northeastern Ohio and Western Pennsylvania.

Scoutmaster Paul will bring a friend with him to the meeting, who will provide a fine program of entertainment.

NEWS BRIEFS IN WARD DISTRICT

Many motorists still persist in pulling across streets and parking on the wrong side of the street. This is a very dangerous practice and is oftentimes the cause of accidents.

Erection of overhead steel work at the new Pennsylvania Power Company, sub-station on North Cedar street, has been started. When completed this will be quite an elaborate and complicated set-up.

At least one motorist going thru the Seventh Ward Wednesday did not give a hoot for his automobile. He had suffered a flat tire and instead of stopping to have it fixed, he was driving on what remained of the tire and the rim.

Picnic season is on, or at least for the clubs, classes and societies in the ward. On an average of at least one picnic a day has been reported for this week and next week by groups in the area. Cascade Park seems to be the popular place, in most of these cases.

Baby chicks are still being handled by the Mahoningtown Post Office. Although it is rather late in the chick season, many farmers in the area are still starting chicks.

This summer, at least 10 new porches have been built in the Seventh ward. In most of the cases, old porches were removed to make way for the new, thus adding a great deal to the appearance of the property.

M. E. G. AUXILIARY

Members of the M. E. G. Auxiliary will meet tonight at the home of Mrs. Paul Bender, Maple street.

SEVENTH WARD PERSONALS

Word was received today stating that Mrs. R. M. Barnes, who has been vacationing in Hermosa Beach, California, will start her return trip today. She will be accompanied back by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Thompson, who will visit in the ward.

Mrs. J. W. Wilson, Mr. R. A. Franklin, Mrs. Sarah Clark and Mrs. Bevan, all of Cedar street, have returned to their respective homes, following a visit with relatives and friends in Columbus, O.

Miss Margaret and Lois Orlando and Lucy Masone of Wabash avenue, have returned from a two weeks vacation period in New York City, where they visited the fair and other points of interest.

Bobby Prescario, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Prescario of West Cherry street, is rapidly improving at his home following a tonsil operation in the New Castle hospital.

Fourth Presbyterian Annual Picnic Plans

Every summer the Presbyterians who were members of the old Fourth church, now abandoned, have a reunion picnic, and this summer will be no exception.

Today it is announced that the outing will take place in Cascade park Friday, July 21. A basket dinner will be enjoyed in the grove at 6:30 p. m.; coffee, cream and butter furnished. On the table committee are Mrs. John Book, Mrs. J. L. Maxwell, Mrs. James Plum, Mrs. Jessie Reed and Mrs. James Gibson. The reunion is for all former members of the church and a big time is promised them.
